

lesson plan

Register for classes

Register your account at www.SunshineReview.org and start activating transparency in your state!

Get your schedule

For your first assignment, FOIA your district's master teacher schedule. (Find out more on www.backtoschool.SunshineReview.org)

Compare teachers with your friends

Login to Sunshine Review to compare your local information with other districts.

Shop for supplies and new clothes

Check your district's Register on Sunshine Review to find out what kind of "shopping" your elected officials have been up to.

Decorate your locker

Make a statement! "Decorate" the articles on Sunshine Review by adding your own contributions...the best part about wiki-ing!

Take your school picture

Put your best face forward, and join Sunshine Review's "Parent2Parent" Ning Network, at <http://SunshineReviewParent2Parent.ning.com> It's a chance for you to interact with other parents, taxpayers, and anyone else who's interested in keeping an eye on their school district.

Get your physical

Check your district's vital signs: check out what information they've posted on their budget, school board members, taxes, etc.

Hop on the bus, it's time for school!

Get ready to learn all about your district and why government transparency is your best tool for information! It's easy, take the first step at www.SunshineReview.org.

